

SOCIAL SECURITY DENIALS DURING COVID-19

This information is up to date as of May 4, 2020.
Please contact our office for the most up to date information

1 If your application for Social Security was denied, you still must meet the appeal deadline.

Generally, you have 60 days after you receive the notice of the Social Security Administration (SSA)'s decision to ask for any type of appeal.

2

3 Please note: Calling SSA does not preserve your appeal

Also note: All SSA offices are closed to walk-ins due to the COVID-19 pandemic. You may not visit your local SSA office in person.
