ALL SERVICES ARE FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL

After a sexual assault or domestic violence situation, a victim/survivor can find him/herself trying to navigate three complex systems: administrative (Title IX), civil (family court, housing, etc.), and criminal justice.

LawNY can help you navigate these systems and explain your legal rights in these very complex systems. Studies show victim/survivors who have an attorney feel more supported, are more likely to continue their education, and have their legal needs met. Our advocates are trained to listen carefully to each client's account, explain the legal options and respect the client's choices.
